General Information

Our Food Handling Certificate (Level 2) course is designed for those people who have already completed their Food Handling Certificate (Level 1) course or who want to extend their level of knowledge in the area of Food Safety. This course provides you with the opportunity to be recognised and work in the retail, hospitality and transport and distributions sectors. This course describes how to handle food safely during the storage, preparation, display, service and disposal of food.

Food handling is important as it keeps food germ and bacteria-free when served, displayed or stored. Poor personal hygiene or mishandling of food may cause the transmission of food borne diseases such as food poisoning, salmonella and other digestive system illnesses. The course also covers how to identify and report practices that are inconsistent with the food safety programs.

Our course has a very useful electronic workplace supervisor report, where no hard copy documents are required to be completed. You can send your report online for your workplace supervisor to complete. At the Australian Institute of Accreditation we take pride in providing outstanding online food safety training courses and certification. You can easily access all the information you require to learn what you need to meet industry standards. Access your course anywhere, anytime, 24/7.

Course outline

This course is designed for individuals who currently are or have previously worked in the food industry. This is required because as part of the assessment process, as you will need to nominate a Third-Party Observer who will need to verify that you can demonstrate the required skills in the workplace. Your course has an interactive learning material, where you will be asked questions along the way to check your understanding. These questions are not part of your formal assessment process. You will also be provided with readings and case studies.

Course information includes;

- > Food safety programs
- > Storing food safely
- > Preparing food safely
- > The principles of HACCP
- > Providing safe single use items
- > Maintaining a clean environment
- > Disposing of food safely

Course Duration

The online lessons, multiple choice quizzes and case studies

take most people around six (6) to eight (8) hours to complete. The completion of the Third-Party Observation Report and Video Evidence Submissions may add another hour or so to the total time of completion.

However, everyone learns at a different pace. If you've been working in the food industry for years, it's likely you'll already be familiar with much of the course content. If English is not your first language, it may take longer to work through the lessons.

From the time of enrolment, you have eight (8) weeks to complete your training course.

Assessment process

After you have completed your learning module, there are some formal assessment activities that you need to complete.

Multiple Choice Questions

- > Straightforward questions where you will have the opportunity to demonstrate your knowledge

Scenario Questions

- > Apply what you have learnt to a simulated environment by reading case studies and answering related questions.

Third Party Observation Report

- > We provide an online form that is linked to your course that allows your nominated Third Party Observer to confirm that you can do practical tasks in the workplace. Your Third Party Observer should have at least 18 months industry experience. This report is online, there is no need to download, scan and upload any documents.

Video Evidence Submissions

- > Your Performance Evidence submission couldn't be easier. You can submit your assessment by recording yourself completing several straight-forward examples of Food Safety in short, 2 minute smartphone videos, or setup a Zoom with one of our trainers to quickly demonstrate your skills live in less than 20 minutes! You will need to record these videos in an operational food preparation environment.
