General Information

Many businesses must nominate a Food Safety Supervisor to ensure all staff have the relevant skills and knowledge to safely handle food in their roles. This course is designed for those supervisors to understand the requirements around handling food safely and how to supervise other staff to do the same. Your dedicated Food Safety Supervisor will learn how to best manage Food Safety in the kitchen and ensure strict procedures are in place so that all food served is safe to eat.

Your Food Safety Supervisor course can be accessed 24/7 through a 100% interactive, custom designed online learning portal. You have the ability to engage with interactive learning content and straightforward assessment. You will only be required to answer a multiple-choice quiz and scenario questions, without having the hassle of downloading observation documents, getting them signed in your workplace and re-uploading them again as part of your required assessment. This is because our course has a unique 100% online electronic Third-Party Observation Report, which is generated right from your course page. It really is a true 100% online course, no hidden downloadable documents required, which could save you hours of time!

Course outline

This course is designed for individuals who currently are or have previously worked in the food industry. This is required because as part of the assessment process, as you will need to nominate a Third-Party Observer who will need to verify that you can demonstrate the required skills in the workplace. Your course has an interactive learning material, where you will be asked questions along the way to check your understanding. These questions are not part of your formal assessment process. You will also be provided with readings and case studies.
